ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF Cotton Land Company.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, the undersigned, have this day associated ourselves together for the purpose of becoming incorporated under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, for the transaction of a lawful business and for that purpose we do adopt the following Articles of Incorporation, and we hereby certify:

ARTICLE I.
That the names of the incorporators of said corporation are W. L. Hollingsworth, W. J. Hole, D. M. Martin, Louis Evans, and W. J. Burton.

ARTICLE II.
That the name of said corporation shall be COTTON LAND COMPANY.

ARTICLE III.
That the principal place of transacting business of said corporation shall be Cottonia, County of Mohave, Territory of Arizona.

ARTICLE IV.
That the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by said corporation is as follows, to-wit:

To purchase or otherwise acquire lands and other real property and to own, manage, improve, and carry on the business of boring and exploring for, producing, distilling, treating, manufacturing, piping, transporting, handling, storing, buying, selling, and dealing in oils, petroleum, asphalt, natural gas, anthracite, bituminous rock, other mineral and hydrocarbon substances, and products of all such substances;

To purchase, construct, build, manufacture, import and otherwise acquire, to own, improve, repair, maintain, alter, equip, store and operate, to sell, as wholesaler and retailer, export, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, and to deal in any and all kinds of machinery, instruments, apparatus and supplies, locomotive engines, stationary engines, motors, boilers, furnaces, machines, devices, and appliances for the generation, transmission and application of steam, electricity and other powers, and any and all kinds of appliances, devices, machines, apparatus and materials used for or adapted to the manufacture, construction, improvement, repair, maintenance or equipment of machinery, instruments, appliances, supplies and plants, and to engage in the business of manufacturing in any and all of its departments;

To engage in and carry on the business of ranching, farming, fruit growing, stock raising, dairying, and to engage in and carry on the business of both wholesale and retail merchants of any and all classes and kinds of goods, wares and merchandise;

To act as agents, factors, forwarding agents, haulers, and to maintain and operate storage warehouses;

To apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to hold on, use, operate, introduce, develop, grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, and to sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, any trade marks, trade names, patents, inventions, improvements, processes, or licenses used in connection with, or secured under Letters Patent of the United States, or elsewhere;

To make, execute and enter into contracts with,

and to take and receive contracts and assignments of contracts from any and all persons, firms, co-partnerships, associations, private, public, or quasi-public corporation, or governments, for doing any of the things that the corporation is authorized to do, and to carry out and perform, or assign or subcontract to others, in whole or in part, all such contracts, whether originally made and entered into by this corporation or acquired by assignment from others;

To acquire by purchase, subscription, underwriting, participation in syndicate, or otherwise, and to hold for investment or otherwise, and to guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate and dispose of the capital stock, bonds, debentures, shares, securities, and other obligations and evidences of indebtedness of any other corporations or companies whatsoever created or organized; to underwrite or subscribe for the same, conditionally or otherwise; to aid in any manner all corporations whose stock, bonds, securities, or other obligations are held or in any manner guaranteed by this corporation, and to do any other acts and things for the preservation, protection, improvement and advancement of the value of any such stock, bonds, securities, or other obligations, and to do any act or thing desired for any such purpose; and while the owner or holder of any such stock, bond, debenture, security, or other obligation, to exercise all of the rights, powers and privileges of ownership thereof, and to exercise any and all voting power thereon;

To give credit on such terms, and to such persons, as may seem expedient; to loan and advance money, and to let real and personal property for hire, upon such terms and conditions, and with such security, as may be deemed proper by the Board of Directors;

To borrow money, to make and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, and evidences of indebtedness of all kinds; to secure the payment of its notes, bonds and other indebtedness, and the interest thereon, by pledge, hypothecation, mortgage, deed of trust or otherwise, of any or all of the property then owned by said corporation, and if deemed best, of any or all property which it may thereafter acquire; to sell or otherwise charge said notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness for property of any kind whatever, and to sell or exchange capital stock of the corporation hereby created, or any part thereof, for the capital stock of other corporations; and for other property, rights or franchises as the Board of Directors of this corporation may deem necessary or convenient in the transaction of its business;

To carry on any business, whether herein indicated or not, that may seem to the corporation capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the business, objects or purposes herein specified, or likely to directly or indirectly, enhance the value of the business, property or rights of this corporation;

Said corporation may, from time to time, do any or all of the acts and things herein set forth, and may conduct its business in any and all other states, in any and all of the territories, colonies and dependencies of the United States, in the District of Columbia, and in any and all foreign countries, and may purchase, hold, mortgage, encumber and convey real and personal property, without limit as to amount, either in or out of the Territory of Arizona.

ARTICLE V.
That the authorized amount of capital stock of said corporation is two million dollars ($2,000,000.00); and the number of shares into which it is divided is twenty thousand (20,000) of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) each; that the time when, and the condition upon which said capital stock is to be paid in, are as follows: Said capital stock shall be paid in at the date of its issuance; said capital stock, or any part thereof, may be paid for in money, or in the purchase, exchange, or transfer of real or personal property, or in labor or services rendered, or in any other valuable right or thing, and in the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of any property purchased, exchanged, or transferred, or services, or labor rendered, or other right or thing received in payment for capital stock, shall be conclusive when so paid for said stock shall be non-assessable.

ARTICLE VI.
That the time of the commencement of said corporation shall be the date of the filing of the certified copy of these Articles of Incorporation, in the office of the Territorial Auditor of said Territory of Arizona, and the time of the termination of said corporation shall be twenty-five (25) years thereafter.

ARTICLE VII.
That the officers or persons by whom the affairs of said corporation are to be conducted are a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) persons; that the first Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the incorporators of said corporation and the Directors elected at said meeting shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the stockholders of said corporation; that thereafter said Board of Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, which annual meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday in November of each year. The Board of Directors at its first meeting after such election of Directors shall elect a President, and a Vice-President, who must be of their own number, and a Treasurer and a Secretary, and may elect such other officers and agents as may be provided for in the By-Laws, and the By-Laws may provide that the same person or persons may be elected to hold more than one of said offices.

ARTICLE VIII.
That the highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which said corporation is at any time to subject itself is one million three hundred thousand dollars ($1,300,000.00).

ARTICLE IX.
That the private property of the stockholders of said corporation is to be exempt from its corporate debts of every kind.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 8th day of December, 1909.
